PORT LOUIS
THE CAPITAL OF MAURITIUS

Port Louis is home to the nation’s main harbour. It is strategically located in the South West of the Indian Ocean, at the crossroad of main maritime routes between Far East, Africa, South America, Europe and Australia. Due to its vital connection for Indian Ocean Island and peripheral regions, Port Louis has become an important and only gateway for cargo traffic going into Indian Ocean.

The Maritime Sector is a vital part of Mauritius’ economy, with the country’s principal gateway, Port Louis Harbour, handling 99% of external trade. Moreover, the Mauritius Ports Authority (MPA) of Port Louis has projected the increase of Container Throughput to exceed 1.3 million TEUS by 2030 and volume to increase 14 fold by 2040.
